

WINDOWS INTO HEAVEN

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

In an effort to beautify our chapel space, we recently began a renovation project to guide our students' thoughts heavenward.

Your sponsorship of these vinyl stained glass windows will greatly shape the impact of our ministry and cover additional renovation costs such as lighting, flooring, paint, and signage.

Thank you for your generous support!

Medallion Window

$500

SPONSORSHIP VALUE

Saint Window

$750

SPONSORSHIP VALUE

- ~~Agnus Dei~~
- ~~Dove~~
- ~~Immaculate Heart~~
- ~~In Hoc Signo Vinces~~
- ~~Martyr's Crown~~
- ~~Monstrance~~
- ~~Sacred Heart~~
- ~~Sheaf of Wheat~~
- ~~Vine of Grapes~~
- Ave Maria
- Pelican

- ~~St. Teresa of Calcutta~~
- ~~Ven. Fulton J. Sheen~~
- ~~St. Gianna Beretta Molla~~
- ~~St. John Henry Newman~~
- St. Paul
- St. Thérèse of Lisieux
- St. Thomas Aquinas

South West Windows

Sheaf of Wheat

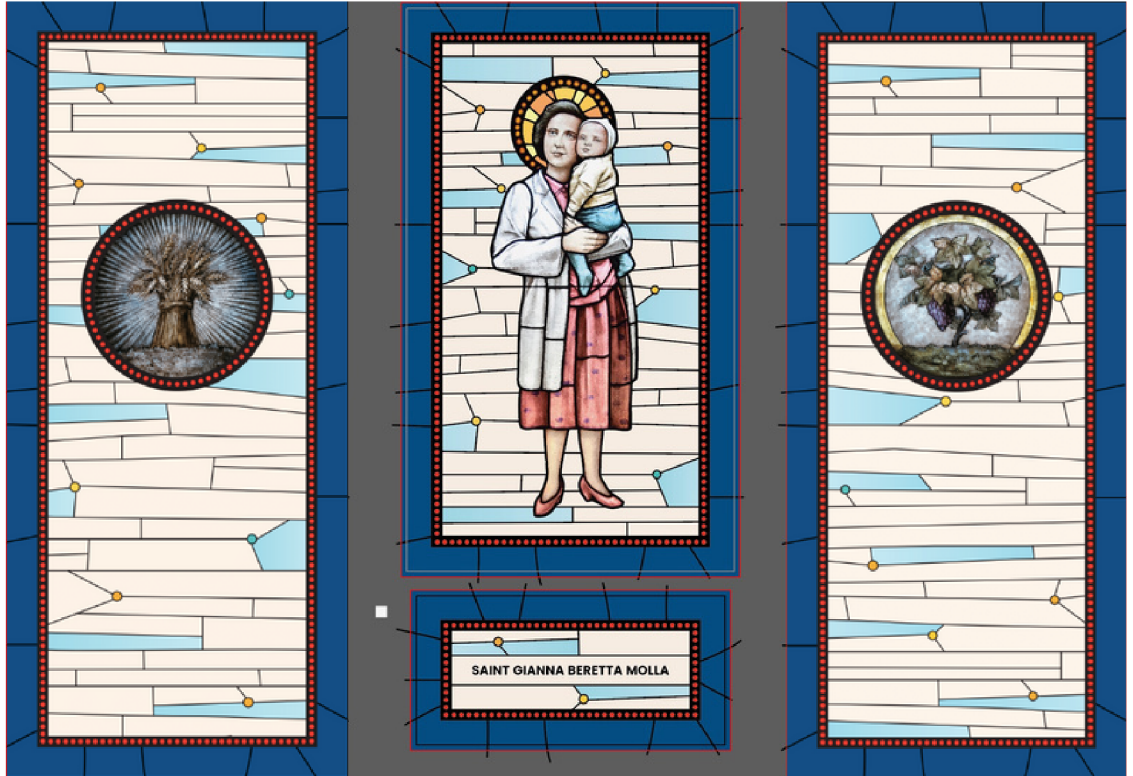

The primary Ingredient of the Eucharistic host which becomes the body of Christ.

St. Gianna Molla

Female saint who was a medical doctor, mother, and modern-day holy laywoman.

Vine of Grapes

The primary Ingredient of the Eucharistic wine which becomes the blood of Christ.

North West Windows

Dove

The Holy Spirit which often accompanies Aquinas In depictions for his writings were divinely guided.

St. Thomas Aquinas

Doctor of the Church and patron of students.

Monstrance

The vessel which holds the Eucharist for exposed prayer. Aquinas' Eucharistic theology is pivotal to Catholic teaching.

"Like the light of the sun that shines through the stained glass windows..., only then does our humanity radiate with the divine presence as we glimpse our ultimate destiny – to 'share in the inheritance of the saints in light' (Col. 1:12)."

Fr. Billy Swan
In the Light of the Lord

North East Windows

Ave Maria

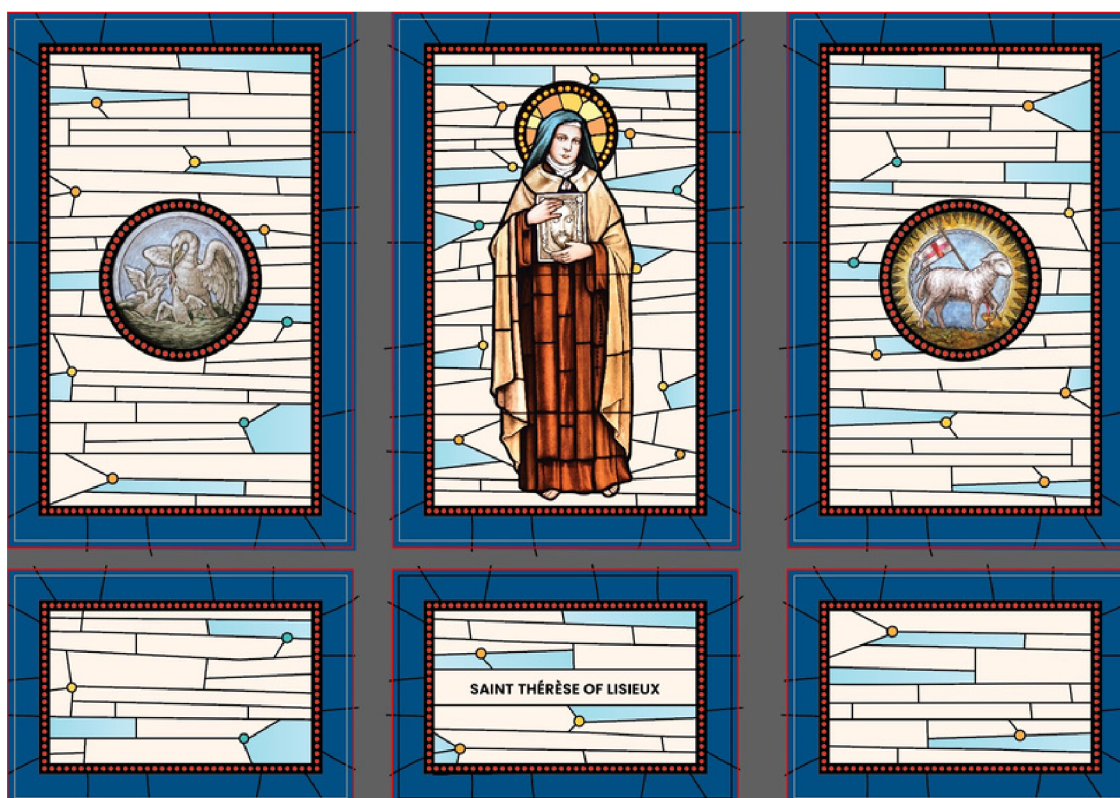

Hail Mary! wrapped In a rosary and scapular denoting Teresa's and Sheen's deep devotion to Our Lady.

Ven. Fulton J. Sheen

Greatest modern evangelist known for the mix of wit and scholarship In his writing & preaching.

In Hoc Signo Vinces

Constantine received a vision of a cross and "In this sign thou shalt conquer".

North Center Windows

Pelican

In famine, the mother pelican is said to draw blood from her chest to feed her chicks. This is a traditional symbol of the Eucharist

St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Patroness of missionaries and Mother Teresa's namesake.

Agnus Dei

Behold the lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

Front Door Window

St. Teresa of Calcutta

Modern-day, culture-changing saint who is patroness of this student parish.

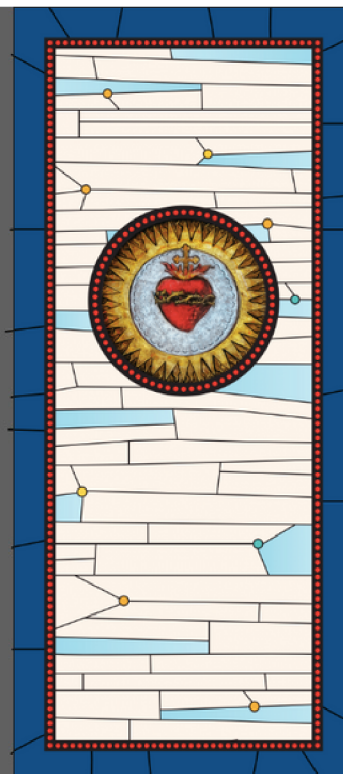

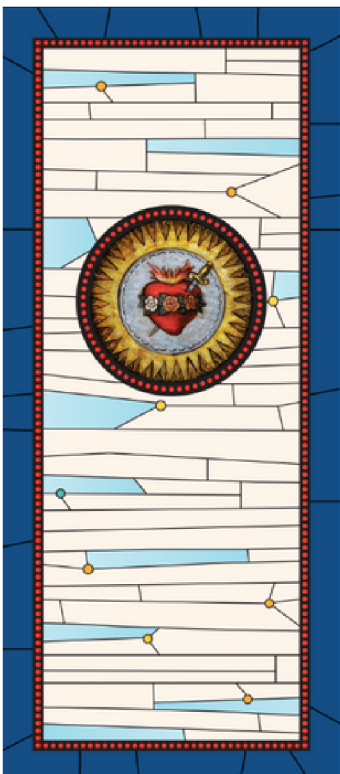

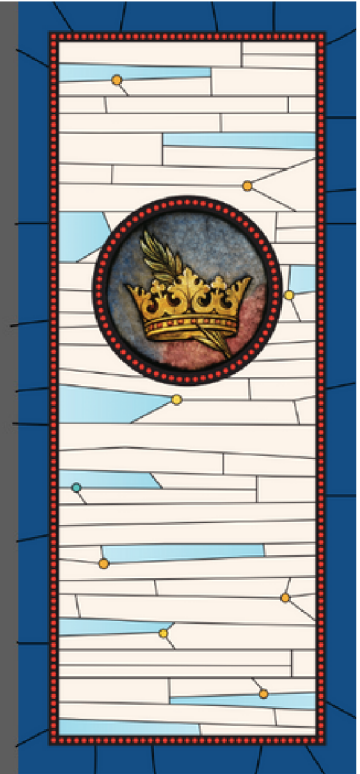

Sacristy Windows

St. Paul

An early convert and companion to Peter known for his preaching & writing.

Martyr's Crown

Placed to remind the priest to celebrate this mass as if it were his first, last, and only.

South East Windows

Immaculate Heart

The heart of Mary which refers to her interior life - joy, sorrow, purity, virtue, love, and compassion.

St. John H. Newman

1800s saint who converted from Anglicanism. He is the namesake of Newman Centers.

Sacred Heart

A devotion to Jesus' divine and human heart which still burns of intense love & desire for mankind.